NUMBER 76.

The State Fair.

The crowds that have been in attendance at the State Fair this week is in itself enough to show that the people of Kentucky are going to make a permanent thing of the fair. On Wednesday, over 12,000 people were in attendance and yesterday that number was increased by several thousand. The program for the remaining days could not be improved on, the attractions are all first-class, and it is without doubt the greatest fair ever held in Kentucky. To-day is Knights of Pythias Day and the Uniform Company of this city will attend.

BOURBON EXHIBITORS AT FAIR.

In the show rings Monday, J. Miller Ward, of Paris, received second premium for stallion, three years and under four; Wm. and A. G. Jones, of North Middletown, received first premium for best combination harness and gaited saddle stallion.

The largest hog on the ground is a Poland China boar shown by Dr. L. R. Hoffman, of Centerville, Ky. He is but 3 years old and weighs 1,150 lbs.

Champion sow—George Clayton, Hutchison, Ky., first premium.

Sow 2 years and over—George Clayton, Hutchison, Ky., first premium.

Boar 2 years old and over—L. R. Hoffman, Centerville, first premium; George Clayton, Hutchison, Ky., second.

AMUSEMENTS.

—The Via Stock Company now showing at the Paris Grand is away above the average of popular price shows, and are pleasing those who are attending. The company deserves much larger houses than they have been having during the week. "A Russian Spy" is the bill for to-night. "Cinderella" will be put on at matinee to-morrow afternoon.

—The following is from the Lexington Leader of date of September 20:
The Herald Square Opera Company delighted a large audience at the Opera House last night, presenting Said Pasha. The company is one of the best ever seen here at popular prices. The prima donna, Miss Leona Watson, won many admirers. She possesses a rich soprano and can make good in any company. She is a Kentucky product, her home being at Latonia.

This company will be seen at the Paris Grand, Tuesday, September 26.

HAS CONTRACTED FOR WEIL'S BAND.

—Manager Borland is happy over a contract just closed to bring Weil's Band, the famous official band of the World's Fair, for a great concert at the Grand. The band includes fifty chosen musicians and goes on a long tour of the country. The concerts are said to be of the brightest sort, high-class and popular. The programmes are designed to please the whole public. Director William Weil has prepared programmes with that special object in view. In addition to the band a prima donna soprano is engaged for the present tour. Prices will be on a popular scale.

BIRTHS.

—To the wife of Lee Price, Saturday, a son—Morris Herman. Second born and second son.

DEATHS.

—David Crockett Taylor, aged forty-nine years, died at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday morning of dropsy. He is survived by his widow and one daughter, Miss Mary Taylor. Mr. Taylor is a brother of Geo. W. Taylor, who resides near this city. The funeral was held Thursday morning. Burial in Paris cemetery.

New Mail Service.

A new mail service is now received in Paris from Cynthiana daily, except Sunday, at 7:30 a. m., and return mail to Cynthiana at 6:15 p. m. These are additional mails, all the former service continuing as usual.

A lock pouch is also received from Carlisle and Millersburg daily, except Sunday, at 11 a. m., and one returning to these points at 11:15 a. m. The former service also continues unchanged.

A locked pouch now arrives from Lexington at 11:45 a. m., and one is dispatched to Lexington at 3:40 p. m. This latter is a most valuable addition to the mail service, as it connects with Louisville and all points West and South.

Mrs. Corne W. Baird's Invitation.

TO THE LADIES:

Let me invite you to my Fall Exhibition of Millinery on Saturday, September 20.

I can assure you of the choicest and rarest new ideas, secured in New York, Philadelphia and elsewhere. The pattern hats are beautiful, but scarcely excel in loveliness the striking and attractive creations of American artists. Come and see.

Remember the date, Thursday, September 30. Respectfully,
MRS. CORNE WATSON BAIRD.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

We are authorized to announce Dan W. Peed as a Republican candidate for Jailer of Bourbon county.

We are authorized to announce H. T. Ingram, of Ruddles Mills, as a Republican candidate for County Judge of Bourbon county.

Paris, Ky., Friday, September 22, 1905.

THE heartless manner in which the Coroner of Harrison county ordered the remains of Mr. Ed. Woods, the unfortunate young man of this city who met his death by falling from a train near Cynthiana, to be buried has caused expressions of deserved indignation by the people of this community. One would not think he lived in a civilized community where an officer of the law would order a shallow hole dug in the ground and a human being put in it, without even a sheet around him, and only covered by a few inches of dirt. Then, too, not making the slightest effort to have the body identified. We can not think that this man is a fair representative of the people of Harrison county, yet they should be blamed for electing such a creature to office and the sooner he is removed the better it will be for the fair name of your county. He must belong to some heathen nation, surely no Kentuckian could have acted in the barbarian manner as he did on this occasion.

It is noticable that Bourbon county Republicans hold no Convention to nominate their candidates, but the Committee in executive session names the candidates. Why is this? Just because they can not hold a convention unless it be under the control of the black man, and they so outnumber the white Republicans that it would be an easy matter for them to put one of their own race on the ticket. It is but the same old story, the only use the white republican has for Mr. Negro is to secure his vote. When it comes to one of them running for an office the "lilly whites" cry out "you musn't think about running, you will destroy our chances." Wonder if Mr. Negro will ever find out who his real friends are?

If Mr. Perkins, of the New York Life, contributed to the Republican national committee $48,702 of the policy-holders' money it will be easy to estimate the corruption fund of the Republicans in 1904. Mr. Perkins is a director in eighty-eight companies, vice president of sixty-six and president of eleven. And there are companies in which he is not a director, but whose directors are moved by the impulses which moved Mr. Perkins. And there are the trust companies—but what's the use? The money of the public was contributed to the success of a party to which the public is the last consideration.

MUDDLE, muddle, muddle and trouble, trouble, trouble, is the state of affairs in the Bourbon county Republican ranks at present, and it seems the farther they go the wider the breach. Now comes H. T. Ingram, who was nominated for Magistrate of Ruddles Mills precinct on Saturday last, and announces himself for County Judge. Then follows Dan W. Peed, the Republican nominee for Jailor, with the declaration that he is off if Ingram is on. Dissensions follow one another thick and fast and the upshot of the whole business will be that the G. O. P. will have to call on some of its colored brothers to fill out the ticket.

THE greatest paper ever published in Central Kentucky, or we may say in Kentucky, was the Lexington Herald of Tuesday. It was a sixty page State Fair souvenir edition and did credit to the management of this Central Kentucky representative daily. The people not only of Lexington, but throughout this entire section, should be proud that such a paper of the standard of the Lexington Herald is published in our midst.

LET every business man in the city be present to-night at the meeting of the Business Men's Club in the City Hall, and hear the reports from Committees appointed at last meeting. If the interest taken in the first meeting is kept up you will soon see the great benefit such a club can accomplish for a town.

THE Democrats should remember that registration day is Tuesday, October 3, and we can on that day win the November election if Democrats will do their duty and see that every Democratic vote in the city is registered.

Now let us hear from the immaculate Mr. Roosevelt upon the subject of using innocent life insurance policy-holders' money for campaign contributions.

STOCK AND CROP.

—Kentucky's corn crop show a yield of 97 per cent.

—E. K. Thomas bought in Montgomery 18 feeding cattle, averaging 1,225 pounds, at 4 cents.

—H. S. Caywood, of North Middletown, sold to Simon Weil, 35 export cattle, averaging 1,400 pounds at 5 cents.

—The tobacco prospect in Kentucky is below an average for five years. In Woodford the crop is the poorest ever raised.

—W. O. Butler's fine Percheron stallion, Prince, took first premium at the Lexington colored fair. The stallion has taken the blue ribbon everywhere he has been shown.

—Messrs. Henry Craig, of Georgetown, and John M. Stevenson, of Winchester, sold Saturday to Messrs. R. B. Lee and W. B. Woolums 490 acres of land, nine miles from Georgetown, in the Northern part of Scott county, for $7,400.

—At Georgetown Court, Monday, there was a good crowd in attendance. Auctioneer Peak made the following report: Three hundred cattle on the market. Steers, of 800 pounds weight, sold at $3.40 to $3.70; 700-pound steers at $3.25 to $3.60; calves $12.50 to $18 per head; dry cows $3 per cwt.; 100 suckling mule colts sold at $50 to $100 per head, according to quality, the bulk of them selling at $65 to $80.

—Well posted men in Chicago have been figuring on the number of cars that will be required to move the enormous crop of the United States to their respective destination. According to their statistics a train about 11,000 miles long to handle the harvest. They figure the modern freight car to be 50 feet long. This would mean about 100 cars to the mile in the prodigiously long train, or 1,100,000 cars all told. A train 11,000 miles long would all but half way encircle the earth.

Strikes Hidden Rocks.

When your ship of health strikes the hidden rock of consumption, pneumonia, etc., you are lost if you don't get help from Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption. J. W. McKinnon, of Taladega, Ala., writes: "I had been very ill with pneumonia, under the care of two doctors, but was getting no better when I began to take Dr. King's New Discovery. The first dose gave relief, and one bottle cured me." Sure cure for sore throat, bronchitis, coughs and colds. Guaranteed at Oberdorfer's drug store, price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

Two small boys on their way home from Sunday-school were discussing Jacob's dream, in which angels walked up and down the ladder let down from heaven.

"The angels had wings of course," said the first small boy, "so I don't see why they didn't fly."

"Well," replied the second small boy after a moment's thought, "perhaps they were moulting."

Horrors of American Railroad.

The horrors of modern warfare sink into insignificance when compared with the horrors of modern railroad-ing in the United States. An army larger than the Union forces at Gettysburg is killed and wounded every year on the railroads of the United States.

During the year ending June 30, 1904, there were 10,046 people killed and 84,155 people injured by accidents on American railways. Of the killed 441 were passengers, and of the injured 9,111 were passengers. The number of employees killed was 3,632, and the number of injured employees was 68,067. Six thousand of the slain were neither passengers nor employees, probably the greater number being killed at grade crossings or while walking the tracks. This shocking casualty list would cause a shudder of horror if it occurred in a modern battle, but as the casualties occur in small numbers every day we have grown callous. But is it not time that the public take an interest in the matter and demand greater safety for employees and patrons.

Startling Mortality.

Statistics show startling mortality, from appendicitis and peritonitis. To prevent and cure these awful diseases, there is just one reliable remedy, Dr. King's New Life Pills. M. Flannery, of 14 Custom House Place, Chicago, says: "They have no equal for constipation and biliousness."

Ladies' and Girls' Ready-to-Wear Garments.

What is Generally Accepted As Correct.

Gray, in all its shades, has by universal acceptance been proclaimed the king of colors for Autumn, 1905. The most reliable fashion delineators hinted some time ago that this would be the case, so we took the hint and turned our thoughts and endeavors toward bringing together a contrasting assortment of correctly and stylishly modeled suits in all the various shades of gray.

Every true woman's aim is to be stylishly dressed, and no woman can be considered stylishly dressed unless she is correctly dressed. In getting a suit here you are assured of the latter; therefore, further argument would be superfluous—our suits being at once correct, stylish, and in every way first-class.

One graceful long coated model at $25 is composed of best quality homespun cloth in a stone gray shade. A model forming an ideal "all occasion" suit being serviceable, yet essentially dressy. Other long coated styles are made of novelty materials, cut upon mannish lines, and carry unique individuality with them, which make them distinct from all others.

Harrison and Oder Indicted.

At the conclusion of the investigation Tuesday by the Clark County grand jury into the alleged illegal settlements of the back tax suits against the Ford Lumber Company indictments were returned against former Revenue Agent A. M. Harrison and Edward Oder, of Lexington. Bench warrants for their arrests were issued. Investigation of Harrison's methods resulted from Sheriff Woodson McCord's refusal to accept a small judgment entered by Harrison instead of a larger amount due from the Ford Lumber Company, and the payment of $1,000 by W. R. Thomas, manager of the company, to Harrison to enter the small judgment.

It developed before the grand jury that Edward Oder, an insurance agent of Lexington, had acted as the go-between for Harrison and Thomas. Oder was mentioned by State Inspector Hines in his official report to Governor Beckham and a copy of this report was laid before the grand jury, and this, coupled with the testimony of Hines, Sheriff McCord and Manager Thomas, resulted in true bills being rendered against the two men.

Last Obstacle Removed.

The last obstacle in the way of building the new Union depot at Lexington by the Louisville, Chesapeake & Ohio and Louisville & Eastern railroads was removed Tuesday when the deeds were filed by Dr. A. P. Taylor and the heirs of W. S. Snyder, Sr., to property required for the site on East Main street, in that city. The price paid for the Taylor property was $18,000, Dr. Taylor being allowed to remove his residence and office. The railroad officials state that the work on the depot which will cost $300,000, will be begun in less than a week.

Harrison's Successor.

Auditor S. W. Hager appointed J. F. Hawn, of Barbourville, State revenue agent to succeed George Spear, of Anderson, who was appointed temporarily to succeed A. M. Harrison, of Lexington. Mr. Spear will resume his clerkship in the auditor's office.

The hemp breaking machine invented and patented by Frank O'Neill, Jr., of this city, has been perfected and will be doing service in the hemp fields of this county during the coming season. The slight obstacles that were objectionable in the first model built by the young inventor have been running practical tests, making the hemp merchantable from the machine without requiring any shaking by hand. Tests have been made with hemp ranging in length from twenty inches to eighteen feet, and it cleans the short, fine material as well as the long hemp.

INSIDE INFORMATION.

News Readers Chance for Profit—Everyone Ought to Grasp this Opportunity.

To have even a simple case of indigestion is to have "inside information" of suffering that warns of serious trouble in the future, unless the digestive system is strengthened.

If you cannot eat and digest three good, square and satisfying meals each day without discomfort, your stomach needs Mi-o-na tablets. They are not a mere temporary relief, but are composed of valuable medicinal agents which strengthen the digestive organs, and cure and prevent stomach troubles.

When there are pains or distress after eating, headaches, belching of gases, a sour taste in the mouth, dizziness, heart burn, specks before the eyes, furred tongues, sleeplessness, nervousness, or back ache, the stomach needs the help of Mi-o-na.

Every reader of the News should grasp the opportunity offered by Clark & Co. to try Mi-o-na at their risk. Just one little tablet out of a 50 cent box of this remedy before each meal for a few days, and you will soon have a strong stomach and perfect health.

Ask Clark & Co. to show you the guarantee under which they sell Mi-o-na. This valuable remedy costs you nothing unless it restores health.

History of Blue Lick.

[Lexington Herald.]

An interesting history is attached to the Blue Lick Springs, over which a suit is now pending.

As agent and attorney in fact for his kinsman, Miss Charlotte E. Early, of Lynchburg, Va., Col. W. H. Polk, of this city, on Thursday last filed suit in the Nicholas County Circuit Court against the Blue Lick Springs Company, a corporation composed of Carlisle people, now in possession of and operating the Lower Blue Lick Springs. The attorneys representing Miss Early and Hon. W. H. Holt, ex-Chief Justice of Kentucky and late United States Judge of Porto Rico; Col. John R. Allen, of Lexington, and Geo. S. Burroughs, of Carlisle.

The history of the case is quite an interesting one. These springs were discovered and claimed in 1773 by Major John Finley, of Pennsylvania, and officer in the French and Indian wars, who came out to Kentucky in the same year with the first surveyors in the West. Lying on the Great Buffalo road that led from the Ohio at Maysville to this vicinity these salt springs were the resort of immense herds of buffalo, elk, deer and other wild animals.

It was here that Boone and a company of men, engaged in making salt, were captured in pioneer days. Here, also, in 1782, occurred the disastrous massacre of Kentuckians under Col. John Todd, just after the British and savages retreated from the siege of Bryan's Station.

About seventy-five years ago Thomas and Lewis Holladay—the former grand father of Miss Early and wife of W. H. Polk—purchased the tract in controversy from Mrs. Mary Pryor, and leased a large tract adjoining Major Bedinger, and built an immense hotel that was burned down at the beginning of the Civil War. The portion leased included the battlefield, where the bloody fight of 1782 took place. At a later period the Holladays deeded the property to the mother of Miss Early and her sister, Mrs. Sallie Kenney, first wife of the late James M. Hughes, of Paris, Ky. Mrs. Early died in 1865, and her daughter, Charlotte, was adopted and raised by her uncle, Col. Jesse H. Talbutt, former proprietor of "The Meadows," near this city, and the father of Mrs. Polk.

After the death of Col. Talbutt, in 1880, Miss Early went to Lynchburg, Va., to reside with her kinsman, the family of Bishop Early, of Virginia, a brother of Gen. Jubal Early, the noted Confederate General. When Miss Early was residing in Virginia the old spring north of the river, near the site of the hotel failed. It is claimed that the parties engaged in shipping the water crossed to the south side of the Licking and took adverse possession of Miss Early's tract, which also included a Blue Lick Spring, the head of the other one on the north side. There was also an alleged illegal sale by certain kinsmen of Miss Early of the property in controversy, and without her knowledge or consent, after she had attained her majority. The purchaser of two acres of the tract, including the head spring, at her death left it to a grandson, who, in 1890, sold it to the Blue Lick Springs Water Company and became a partner in the concern. The company has been operating the springs for the past five years, shipping the water to all parts. In her suit Miss Early also demands an accounting for fifty thousand dollars' worth of water sold.

Great Schemer.

[Hogwallow Kentuckian.]

Flim Dillard, who sojourns near the cerulean headwaters of Gander Creek, got on his mule Sunday morning and headed for the Dog Hill Church, where he anticipated attending services and trading horses. But his mule hesitated here and there along the road to graze, and consequently Flim was in the neighborhood of three hours and a quarter behind time. However, he proceeded on down to Hogwallow and rested awhile. He had not been here long before he skeered up a horse trade with Sim Flinders, giving him the mule for a long-distance, double-action squirrel rifle, a side of meat and a jug of Hog Ford Joy Producer.

Flim was confident that he got the best of the trade, but the thing that puzzled him was how he could get home afoot with his new belongings. It seems, though, that a fellow can always find a way out of a difficulty if he will only meditate sufficiently, and this Flim done on the stump in front of the postoffice. He then took the licker and got drunk, after which he shot a fellow with the rifle; the deputy captured him and fined him the side of meat and the rifle, and then hauled him home. Flim is a schemer from awayback.

Broke News Gently.

[Kansas City Journal.]

The Hiawatha Democrat gives this as one of the stories that was very popular 100 years ago. An Irish section hand was killed while at work, and the men who had worked with him felt terribly and hated to tell his wife. Finally one man, who was said to have a silver tongue, was selected to break the news. He went to the widow's home and said to her: "Where is Pat?" "Shure, and he is at work on the track," replied the widow. The tender-hearted, silver-tongued newsbreaker took the widows hand and said: "You're a liar; he's dead, and they're bringing him in a wagon."

Incredible Brutality.

It would have been incredible brutality if Chas. F. Lemberger, of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering son. "My boy," he says, "cut a fearful gash over his eye, so I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which quickly healed it and saved his eye." Good for burns and ulcers too. Only 25c at Oberdorfer's drug store.

FOR FAMILY USE.—Order a case of Lion Beer from T. F. Brannon. None better for family use.

Sunflower Philosophy.

[Atchison (Kan.) Globe.]

We have never had much notoriety, but we have had enough to know we don't like it.

The sneers of the guests and the threats of the weather usually get the man who gives the picnic.

The telegraph says that six doctors say Baron Komura has typhoid fever, and six say it is something else. Here's our diagnosis: He is scared to go home.

We admire a man with a little enthusiasm. Plague on a man who is as cold and lifeless as a mackerel after it has been in brine two or three years.

If we were a woman's second husband, her first being in the cemetery, we would look with particular disfavor upon any medicines that she used when the first one got sick.

Earrings are coming back, which means that a neighbor woman will run over some morning with a needle and a cork, and when they are gone there will be a hole in each of Marie's ears, with a string in it, and then it will be up to pa to get a diamond.

The telephone girls have more patience than any other class of women in the world. If ever we marry again, we intend to marry a telephone girl. We have often been impudent with them; we hereby apologize. Every user of a telephone, particularly long distance, should apologize to the telephone operators at least once a day.

PRINCIPLE.

THIS picture shows the HOT BLAST RING in the great

Buck's Hot Blast Heater

that you are hearing so much about these days.

It shows how the cold air is drawn from the floor into the stove. This means that there is constant circulation in your room, a most important feature from a health-giving standpoint.

There is no "dead air" in your home.

We will demonstrate the workings of this wonderful heater in front of our store on Oct. 16 to 17.

After the demonstration we will give the Heater away.

A Joke on the Doctor.

[Harper's Weekly.]

A Baltimore physician says that recently he boarded a Charles street car that was sadly overcrowded. He soon observed a big German sprawled over an area sufficient to seat two persons at least, while just in front of him stood a poor woman hanging to a strap. Indignant at this exhibition of selfishness on the part of the German, the physician tapped him on the shoulder, saying:

"See here! Why don't you move a little, so that this tired woman may have a seat?"

For a moment the German looked dazed. Then a broad smile spread over his countenance as he answered:

"Say, dot's a joke on you, all right! Dot's my wife!"

The Ladies Aid.

[Reformed Church Herald, Lisbon, Ia.]
We've put a fine addition to the good old church at home,
It's just the latest kilter, with a gallery and dome,
It seats a thousand people—finest church in all the town,
And when 'twas dedicated, why we planked ten thousand down;
That is, we paid five thousand—every deacon did his best—
And the Ladies' Aid Society, it promised all the rest.

We've got an organ in the church, very finest in the land,
It's got a thousand pipes or more, its melody is grand,
And when we sit on cushioned pews and hear the master play,
It carries us to realms and of bliss unnumbered miles away.
It cost a cool three thousand, and it's stood the hardest test;
We'll pay a thousand on it—the Ladies' Aid the rest.

They'll give a hundred sociable, cantatas, too, and teas;
They'll bake a thousand angel cakes, and tons of cream they'll freeze.
They'll beg and scrape and toil and sweat for seven years or more.
And then they'll start all o'er again, for a carpet for the floor.
No, it isn't just like digging out the money from the vest
When the Ladies' Aid gets busy and says: "We'll pay the rest."

Of course we're proud of our big church from pulpit up to spire;
It is the darling of our eyes, the crown of our desire;
But when I see the sisters work to raise the cash that lacks,
I somehow feel the church is built on women's tired backs.
And sometimes I can't help thinking when we reach the regions blest,
That men will get the toil and sweat, and the Ladies' Aid the rest.
